Nirvana's specialist procurement team are experts at choosing athlete friendly accommodation over a range of price points to ensure we have something for everyone.

The Nirvana Collection brings together accommodation which is ideally situated for access to and from the event, combined with a range of services to support the athlete before, during and after the event, this includes a priority early bird breakfast for the exclusive use of Nirvana guests.

All supported by our expert in-resort team, responsible for coordinating and managing your journey from start to finish.

And if we haven't got the accommodation that works for you, we can provide tailor made solution to meet your specific requirements.
